

2014 Tournament Recap

June 15, 2014 | The 2014 WBT season kicked off on June 1st with Mother Nature's circus act of weather. Delayed for 25 minutes to allow lightning to pass on by, 14 teams the proceeded to take off from Black Water public access to catch their 5 bass limit from Clearwater. Met with 68 degree waters, occasional rain and another mid-day downpour, it was only fitting to have the weigh-in under clear, sunny skies! Silver Lining jump started their year by winning, here's the results:

Big Bass #2 – 3.80 lbs - Gotta Have More Cowbell: Jesse Larson and Rocky Novak managed to get on the money board with the 2nd largest bass of the day, earning them $40. (Big Bass #1 cited below)

4th Place – 12.90 lbs - The Bass Whisperers: Jeremy Abbott and Luke Wrubel past success on these waters were evidenced again by placing in the money. Covering water and through light baits were keys to their success and earned them $25 for 4th.

3rd Place – 13.45 lbs – Penta Bass: Due to the weather, Jared Simons and Mike Dippel weren't in their usual eccentric outfits for fans but in not having them, still managed to win $95 for 3rd place!

2nd Place – 13.80 lbs – Shake 'N Bake: With the 4th partner in 2 years, Lucas Matzke has invited Derek Born to join him in 2014. Only time will tell how long this lasts, but so far great start! The duo took 2nd place earning 13 team of the year points and $195 for the day's efforts!

1st Place – 14.10 lbs – Silver Lining: Jeremie Larson and Bruce Larson wumped the competition to start the year with the top bag of the day. Their 4.15lb biggest bass of the day earned them $100 and their first place finish another $225! A big win to start and they have no intent of letting up!
